Challenge Rule: You can challenge any teams to the left of your position
You can challenge a team in the row above you

Challenges must be registered and accepted within 14 days. Failure to accept will results in dropping down one level.
Challenges do not need to be played within the 14 days window but accepted to be played at an agreed mutual time.

Please report all game results and communications to rhsc.doubles.pyramid@gmail.com

Any new team will be added at the bottom of the pyramid, and will be allowed a single challenge to any team on the board
If the new team wins this challenge they place ahead of the losing team, otherwise they remain at the lower position
